SCHOOL SOUVENIR

LEARNING PASSES FOR WISDOM FOR
THOSE WHO WANT
BOTH

We feel both glad and sad to-day
And scarce can hide the rising tear
We're glad for changes on life's way
Yet sad to part from schoolmates dear

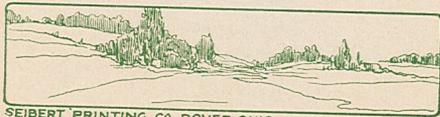

Dear Pupil:

This little memento is of slight value now; but if you find it among other keep-sakes in years to come, it will prove to be a treasured possession--reminding you of friends who helped to mold your character and career.

I hope that you will look back upon this school-year as a bright spot in your life.

My best wishes go with you.

Nature spreads the invitation
To begin the glad vacation.
Birds and flowers and trees and brooks
Bid us put away our books.

The catbird singing to his mate,
The blue-flags waving by the gate,
The black-bass jumping in the pond,
The flare of buttercups beyond;

Warblers trilling in the thicket,
Hum of bees and chirp of cricket,
White and blue and red of trilliums,
Violets, blood-root, and Sweet-Williams;

"A man who tries to reform his life on the installment plan generally gets behind in his payments"

Peach trees dressed in gleaming pink
The rousing call of bob-o-link--
Who can keep his mind on duties
Midst the Spring's alluring beauties?

Enjoy the season of vacation,
Wholesome rest and recreation,
Youth and freedom will not last,
The joys of school-days soon be past!

So play and frolic while you may;
We bid farewell to school today.
We stop the wheels of education
And start upon a long vacation.

Learn where the wild strawberries grow,
Into the woods and meadows go,
Fish for blue-gills in the pool
Where the water's clear and cool.

Then, when summer-time is past
And September comes at last,
Glad vacation's at an end,
Back to school your way you'll wend.

Then the apples glowing red,
Then the aster's purple head,
Pumpkins flaming in the sun,
Will proclaim that school's begun.

gredient for doing good work "
